Description

Dubai stock~1Vss Heidenhain

For sale is Heidenhain ERN 1387.001-2048 Id.Nr.312 215-52

Incremental rotary encoders with a second track—the Z1 track—provide one sine and one cosine signal (C and D) for each motor shaft revolution in addition to the incremental signals. For sine commutation, rotary encoders with a Z1 track need only a subdivision unit and a signal multiplexer to provide both the absolute rotor position from the Z1 track with an accuracy of $\pm 5^\circ$ and the position information for speed and position control from the incremental track (see also Interfaces—Commutation signals).

Some rotary encoders feature additional commutation tracks for sensing the rotor position during switch-on (see Commutation Signals).
